

Private Clients

Our expertise in asset structuring, tax and inheritance law has led us to develop privileged relations with our private clients. We offer personalized advice tailored to the clients' needs and aimed at preserving their interests.

We can count on a network of highly competent foreign correspondents and are thus able to propose the most appropriate solutions and vehicles to our clients.

Our advisory services include:

- Legal and tax analysis of wealth
- Advice on matrimonial property and inheritance arrangements
- Structuring private and commercial assets
- Defining and setting up the most suitable instruments and structures for management and transfer of assets
- Domiciliation
